1. Quality Commitment

With expertise and experience of 8 yrs we can guarantee the best quality, we have always set benchmarks. However, Quality and Content is subjective something that our writers / developers / managers feel is what you / your supervisor may not appreciate. We advice you that you cannot simply hand in the model answer as your own and wait to see what grade you expected. This guarantee means that the model answer is to the grade you requested, first-time round without any amendments. We assume no responsibility after the submission and results. If you are not satisfied with your model answer you must get in touch with us while the work is in progress or within seven days of delivery and we will try and resolve the problem as quickly as possible. We by default have intermediate deliveries for your approvals.

2. We inspire you to score High

Write your own work, use our marking service - and we'll guarantee your final grade! The purpose of our service is to inspire you to write your own work, so to help you with this process we encourage all customers to send back their own written work to be marked. This way it works: request a model answer from us, then use this plus other materials to your disposal to write your own work. Once you have written your own piece, send your work back to us and we will get it marked for you, so you can gauge what level you are likely to receive from your institution. It is worth mentioning that all universities mark differently and all work is subjective, which means the marking service will never be 100% accurate but is merely a guide to help you achieve your desired grade.

3. Plagiarism Guarantee < 7% any case

For your peace of mind we'll scan your model answer with plagiarism software (it's checked against: 9 billion web pages, digital books, journals, over 1 million essays & 200,000 past pieces of work) to ensure it's plagiarism free. You'll get the free scan report with your finished work. We promise that your model answer will be totally unique and plagiarism free. We use writecheck paid access for each and every client. If you detect plagiarism in your work you can rewrite your work. As a custom model answer company, all orders are unique to every customer, 100% guaranteed. Our writers are fully aware of the implications of plagiarism and do not conduct themselves in this manner. However, if on the rare occasion you do detect plagiarism in your order then please contact your Project Manager at the earliest convenience to resolve the situation.
